RE: Speaking Invitation
Bracebridge Young Award
Broadmoor Hotel
Colorado Springs, Colorado
Monday, 27 June 1988

Since you will be out of the country and unable to receive the Bracebridge Young Award, Dick Duesenberg has suggested that you send a deputy to address the group on your behalf and to receive the award. I recommend that you designate [redacted] to stand in for you and receive the award in your name. Since [redacted] has worked with you over the years, I believe that he could best convey your thoughts to this audience made up of about 75 percent lawyers. If you agree, please sign the attached letter for your signature.

Dear Dick:

STAT I was delighted to receive your letter and I think you have an excellent idea for one of my deputies to stand in for me. I have spoken with my General Counsel [redacted] who has agreed to speak on my behalf at the American Society of Corporate Secretaries (ASCS) Annual Conference on June 27th. It was good of you to think of me for the Bracebridge Young Award and I am glad that we are able to work out a solution for my absence. I know Russ will do justice to the occasion.

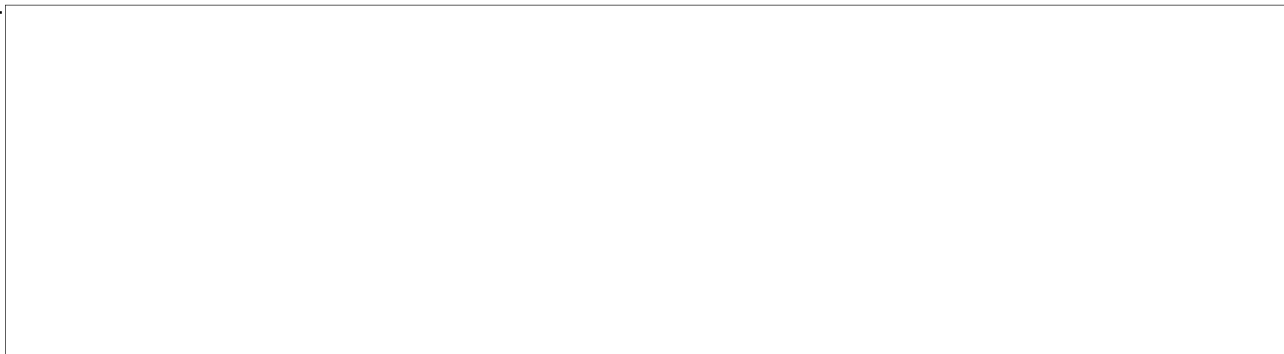

Warmest regards.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Bill:

What a disappointment to receive your note that you will be unable to join the American Society of Corporate Secretaries in Colorado in June. I was not unmindful of that risk when extending the invitation to so busy a gentleman, of course, and a contingency plan has been on my mind--just in case.

Our hope is that you would be able to designate a deputy to speak on your behalf. The Bracebridge Young Award is a very attractive item that the Society--and I personally--very much would like to have entered into your career mementos. We appreciate the demands on your time, and will be pleased to take the route of a deputy in satisfaction of the Society's policy that the recipient be present to accept the Award. Please do favor us with this modification of plans, if at all practicable.

I will telephone your Secretary in a few days to hear, hopefully, your affirmative response.

Sorry, also, that we will miss you at the St. Louis Bar session, since Phyllis and I will be at a National Judicial College Board meeting that evening in Chicago. But, congratulations!

Cordially,

RWD/mkb

RE: Speaking Invitation
Bracebridge Young Award
Broadmoor Hotel
Colorado Springs, Colorado
Monday, 27 June 1988

You have tentatively agreed to be the Bracebridge Young award speaker as well as the recipient of the award on Monday, 27 June at the Broadmoor Hotel. Looking at your heavily committed schedule for the coming months, I recommend that you decline this invitation. With your permission, we could suggest that the award be presented at another time and place as we did with the American Legion. If you agree, attached is a letter of regret for your signature.

Dear Bill:

During the past months, we have discussed the American Society of Corporate Secretaries (ASCS) Annual Conference in June and you have been kind enough to designate me as the Bracebridge Young Award recipient and keynote speaker. I was looking forward to meeting with you and I am disappointed that I now find that I must be out of the country and will not be able to attend the June meeting. Perhaps we can work something out for another time.

I wish you all the best for a successful program.
With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Bill:

Enclosed is a remembrance from the excellent evening at [redacted] place last August. You were in excellent company!

Plans for the Annual Conference of the ASCS in Boulder are shaping up nicely. The Bracebridge Young award speaker is always the central focus of the gathering, and we are honored and delighted that you have accepted this invitation. Traditionally, this presentation opens the Conference, so that, assuming this is convenient with your calendar, you will be scheduled on the morning June 27th. The timing is generally about 30 minutes, and there is no need to direct remarks to matters specifically related to a corporate secretary's duties. The large majority of members are lawyers, and I suspect you will be familiar with many of them. And best of all, you and your guest are invited to be with us for the entire Conference. . . on the ASCS!

If Bork doesn't make it, we have an outstanding judge of the Eighth Circuit who is superbly suited for the vacant seat--Judge Paso (Bud) Bowman. A conservative in the libertarian tradition. Doubtless, you know him; I mention it because of who you are.

Phyllis sends her greetings.

Highest regards,
